My name is Josh Gold. I am a 20 year old professional freeride skier born and raised in Lake Tahoe, California. With over 8 years of competition and filming experience my passion for skiing only grows stronger with each season. I work in creating content for social media based around extreme sports, primarily skiing. My created content is shared through various social media platforms such as TGR, Newschoolers, Barstool Sports, Sports Center, Powder Magazine, and other extreme sports networks. The following resume consists of noteworthy imagery and accomplishments over the years. Thank you for taking the time to review my skiing and character. - Josh Gold
